A message from Fr. Calleja

After arriving in Orangeville last year to begin my new assignment as your parish priest, I must say that I am truly blessed to serve the community of St. Timothy. I have been welcomed with open arms and enthusiasm, and I wish to show my appreciation by saying 'thank you.' Your support in building our small, yet faithful parish to new heights has inspired me to become a better, holier, and hard-working pastor.

In the 8 years of being ordained to the holy priesthood for the Archdiocese of Toronto, this is my first parish assignment as parish priest. It is my duty and vocation to bring the love and message of Jesus Christ to each parishioner, as well as attend to the spiritual and temporal needs of the parish.

However, as Catholic Christians, we all hold the office of the 'priesthood.' Although I am ordained to the 'Ministerial priesthood', every Catholic is conferred the office of the "Common Priesthood of the Faithful" at his/her baptism and is reaffirmed at his/her Confirmation.

And so, as a parish community, we are all called to build up the Body of Christ by being living examples of our faith. Therefore, it is my prayer, that together, we continue to proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ in a culture that discourages faith in God. As our Holy Father Pope Francis said, "Every Christian is challenged, here and now, to be actively engaged in evangelization; indeed, anyone who has truly experienced God's saving love does not need much time or lengthy training to go out and proclaim that love." – Evangelii Gaudium

I wish to thank all those parishioners who have devoted themselves in proclaiming the love of Christ in our community; from our many families, our senior adults; to our lay volunteers, liturgical ministries, parish committees; as well as our parish organizations, The Knights of Columbus and the Legion of Mary. Special thanks to the parish staff Lenore Ulrick and Mary Chiasson, and to Eric Collicutt, Jeffrey Halsall, and Anne Holliday for their tireless efforts in making my job and life easier ;)

Thank you again to everyone for making the parish of St. Timothy such a vibrant, Roman Catholic community in Orangeville. Please continue to pray for me as I continue to serve you as your parish priest.

In Christ,

Fr. Luis Calleja
