Fr Augustine Tolton
The First African-American Catholic Priest
He is a Servant of God now (right before Blessed, and then Saint)

Fr Tolton was born in 1854 in Missouri to a slave couple. After gaining his freedom, Tolton sought to become a priest but could not gain admission to a seminary in the United States because of his race. After studying in Rome, he was sent back to serve the African American community in Quincy, Illinois, and later Chicago, where he started and led St. Monica parish until his death in 1897.

His story is fascinating. You can read it in his biography entitled "From Slave to Priest" (2009) by Caroline Hemesath.
