Are Sundays Part of Lent?

Lent runs from Ash Wednesday
until the Mass of the Lord's Supper
(Holy Thursday)
exclusive.

(The General Norms for the Liturgical Year and the Calendar, 28)

Sundays and solemnities are never days of penance and fasting.

These days provide a moment of refreshment in anticipation of the Resurrection.

Sunday is the day on which Jesus rose from the dead, therefore we should not be fasting and mourning our sins on this day. Sundays are also not counted in the forty days of Lent.

While Lenten Sundays are not days of penance and fasting, they are still celebrated different from the Sundays in Ordinary Time. During Lent, we focus on the journey towards the Resurrection, whereas outside of Lent, we rejoice in the Resurrection.

If we gave something up for Lent, can we indulge in it on Sundays?

You should not go out of your way on Lenten Sundays to indulge in whatever you gave up for Lent. However, you also do not need to actively avoid it, as long as whatever you gave up is not something you shouldn't do or consume in the first place. Actively avoiding is considered fasting, which is forbidden on Sundays, even during Lent.
