Weekly reflection from Fr. Gustavo

Holy Spirit Come

For decades, we have heard the phrase "the spirit of the council." One of the documents of the Second Vatican Council — Lumen Gentium — really taught an understanding of seeing this through the lens of traditional Church teachings, history, and philosophy. The Church and our universal call to holiness, is to discover the authentic character and purpose of the People of God and the unique vocations to which we are all called. It is important to learn about the role of the Church on earth, you will see how it is the channel through which we receive God's grace to attain Heaven. By growing in understanding and teachings of the church, you will be empowered to give a more fervent witness to Christ and the life-giving hope and joy to which you are called.

Pentecost

"PENTECOST" IS FROM THE GREEK PENTEKOSTOS WHICH MEANS FIFTIETH

We celebrate Pentecost on the 50th day after Easter.

On Pentecost, "the mission of the Christ and of the Spirit became the mission of the Church which is sent to proclaim and spread the mystery of the communion of the Holy Trinity."

After the example of Mary and the disciples on the first Pentecost on which "the Church came to birth," we pray and wait for the same Spirit graciously promised by Jesus and listen with quiet hearts to the Word of the Lord.

"There is no freedom greater than letting yourself be guided by the Holy Spirit and allowing Him to lead you wherever he wishes." POPE FRANCIS, MAY 14, 2018

IMAGE FROM ANNUNCIATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY PARISH, TORONTO

We recall... "When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability." ACTS 2:1-4

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and enkindle in them the fire of your love!
